

HSEQ policy, prevention of serious accidents and environmental protection

The objective of Moravia Gas Storage a.s. within its business activity – operation of underground gas storage – is to meet the requirements of the customers and the requirements for safety, health protection, environment, prevention of serious accidents and to secure conditions for continuous development of the company.

To reach these targets the management of the company announces the following HSEQ policy and prevention of serious accidents. In the policy the company undertakes:

1. To perform all activities in accordance with valid legal regulations and other requirements that the company committed to or that apply to the company.
2. To use and to prefer the techniques that provide maximum safety and health and environment protection in all activities. To prevent continuously injuries, health impair, safety hazards to people, harm to property and to take measures to lower the risk of serious accidents and to avoid any harm to the environment.
3. To minimize possible negative influences on people, environment and occurrence of serious accidents resulting from company's activity by setting and fulfilment of tasks and by consistent application of preventive and remedial measures.
4. To perform analyses and to take measures to continuous improvement of effectiveness of HESQ management and prevention of serious accidents. To limit safety hazards to acceptable measure.
5. To evaluate regularly the HESQ policy and prevention of serious accidents and to correct the policy in case of necessary and so to ensure their adequacy in relation to activity relevance of the company.

In Hodonín on 30 June 2016

Stanislav Pylev

Chairman and Member of the Board of Directors
Class A

Ing. Karel Luner

Member of the Board of Directors
Class B